Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 08 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
North and west coasts cloudy, bright elsewhere, showers in east.

Today:
Low cloud will affect the north and west coasts and the Northern Isles, giving a little patchy light drizzle at times. Elsewhere, see bright or sunny spells, but some afternoon showers breaking out mainly over the central and southern Highlands.

Tonight:
A cloudy night for many with showers in the east continuing into the start of the night and some drizzle in the north. Dry with clear spells in the south.

Friday:
Cloudy across the northeast with haar affecting the coasts. Elsewhere should see some bright or sunny spells, best in the west. Heavy afternoon showers in the south and east.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Showers breaking out by day, these heavier and more widespread then the last couple of days. Haar will affect the east coast at times. Quite warm in the sunnier spells.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.